Easter is traditionally the time when we are challenged to respond to all that Jesus has accomplished for us in his death and resurrection. It was often the time when people were baptised and confirmed.

This Easter we are inviting everyone who considers themselves a member of Christ Church to put their name to a simple declaration to covenant, with God's help, to be a member of Christ's Church and Christ Church for the year ahead and work together to fulfil our vision. We believe this is how we can best grow together as followers of Christ.

Why a Covenant?

The Apostle Paul mentions two different types of commitment in 2 Corinthians 8:5: "First they gave themselves to the Lord; and then, by God's will, they gave themselves to us as well". You commit yourself to Christ for salvation and then you commit yourself to other Christians for membership in our church family.

The word fellowship (koinonia) means being as committed to each other as we are to Jesus Christ. We live as New Testament, or New Covenant believers, and so we commit ourselves to this Covenant with God.

Why these seven statements?

We have chosen these seven statements to reflect what it means to be a follower of Jesus. We believe that they reflect what the scriptures tell us about how we can grow together as Jesus' disciples.

Meeting God Daily: "Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed." (Mark 1:35) "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." (Colossians 3:17)

Attending Church Weekly: "Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the LORD your God has commanded you." (Deuteronomy 5:12) "Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another--and all the more as you see the Day approaching." (Hebrews 10:25)

Taking the Small Group Challenge: “What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus.” (2 Timothy 1:13) “In everything set them an example by doing what is good.” (Titus 2:7)

Using God Given Gifts: “From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.” (Ephesians 4:16) “There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord.” (1 Corinthians 12:4-5)

Stewarding God’s resources: “Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others.” (Mark 12:43) “Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.” (2 Corinthians 9:7)

Reaching out in Love: “Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.” (John 13:14-15) “But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.” (Matthew 5:44)

Evangelistically Active: “Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” (Matthew 28:19-20) “But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have.” (1 Peter 3:15)

Electoral Roll

The Electoral Roll of the Church is the closest thing the Anglican Communion has to formal Church Membership. Its principal use is to enable members to vote at the ACM (Annual Church Meeting), and specifically to elect PCC and Deanery Synod members. However, it is also an important expression of the common life of the Church. Normally, the Electoral Roll is revised every year in preparation for the ACM.
